

NOMINATION OF TOUHEY AWARD

The Marinette Catholic Central Foundation is seeking nominations for the Touhey Award.

The award is named after Margaret Touhey. Margaret Touhey was among five of the original graduates of Saint Mary's Institute which later became Our Lady of Lourdes High School, then Marinette Catholic Central High School, and now called St. Thomas Aquinas Academy. After graduation, Margaret chose religious life, eventually moving to Maine where in 1915, the state officials gave her a charter to start the first college for women in Maine. Margaret even became chief architect of the project. She then served as Dean of the college.

The Touhey Award recipient must be a person or group of people that best exemplify Margaret's personal example and ideals of Catholic education as contained in our mission statement.

This nominee must exhibit:

- A. A Christian insight to living
- B. CURRENT PRO-ACTIVE SERVICE TO ST. THOMAS AQUINAS ACADEMY IN PROMOTING OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS
- C. A commitment to working for the betterment of our school community
